Foreword

The Senior Class presents---"....buccaneers and buried gold, and all the old romance retold....."

The buccaneers--the students of Pavo High School.

The buried gold--the organizations and activities, and their enriching qualities which follow those who participate in them, through life.

And all the old romance retold--

Through the years, we hope that the 1952 BUCCANEER will be an unfolding story of memories of the years spent at school.

Dedication

With appreciation for your constant smile;

With gratitude for your understanding as a friend;

With admiration for your interest in young people;

With gratefulness for what you have meant to each of us; To you, MRS. WALTER SCOTT, we give thanks, and dedicate the memories in the 1952 BUCCANEER.

Principal's Message

To the Seniors of Pavo School:

You have lived, worked, studied and played together. There have been hours of enjoyment and pleasure and there have been times of stern reality. Your varied experiences have, I hope, contributed to moral, civic and intellectual growth to the extent that you will become valuable adult members of the community.

The 1952 Buccaneer marks another milestone along the road of school growth and development. You have done a good job. You have planned cooperatively. You have used wisely your individual and collective talents. You have followed through to attain your objective. You have worked successfully in the best tradition of young Americans
My heartiest congratulations to you!

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty two, being of sound mind and body, declare this to be our last will and testament.

To our teachers, we leave our heartiest thank-you for their patience, understanding and helpfulness as we struggled with our problems along the road of Education.

To the first grade, we leave our sincere sympathy, and hope that they will do better than we have.

To the Juniors, we leave our places in the Senior Homeroom, the special privileges that come to Seniors, the work that precedes graduation, and the joy that graduation brings.

To fellow students, individual members of the Senior Class wish to bequeath the following:

I, Oleta Barrow, leave my job selling ice cream to Frances Boutwell.

I, Joan Bryant, leave my height for Alice Hogg to add to her short five feet.

We, Mary Clifton and Laverne Crosby, leave our mutual friendship to Joanne Phillips and Margie Foy.

I, Hilton Cooper, leave my tendency to sleep in class to Norwood Redfern, who really needs no encouragement.

I, Johnny Daniels, leave, to Marlin Herndon, to Marlin Herndon, my passion for making noise.

I, Mary Frances Darby, leave my wit to Shirley Gandy and Jim Brasington.

I, Betty June Duncan, leave to Jeanette Redfearn, my ability to be true to one man at a time.

I, Mary Fallin, leave my nickname "Blue Head" to Vonzeil Gay, with the hopes that she will have as much fun over it as I have!

I, Carrol Fort, leave my winning form as a softball pitcher to Bayard Joiner and Harris "Red" Greene.

I, Aldine Gardner, leave my reputation as a "Lady's Man" to Dewey "Pretty Boy" Robinson, who is fast developing a reputation of his own.

I, Billy Gear, leave.....at last!!

I, Elizabeth Kennedy, leave my place on varsity Basketball team to Delorise Alvis, with the instructions, "Beat Coolidge."

I, Shirley McMillan, leave my rootin', tootin', romancin' technique to Shirley Hart, who can keep it on file, in case she ever needs it. (P.S. She probably won't!)

I, Helen Mathews, leave my neatness to Nada Ulm.

I, Beth Murray, leave my attraction for Moultrie High School to Betty Jean Dorminy. (But Betty can't have the REASON for the attraction!!!)

I, Helen Nolen, leave the strains of a music lesson and my laughter echoing down the halls.

I, Bo Pate, leave my favorite wad of bubble gum (which may be found under the big table in Senior Homeroom) to the "bubble gum kid", Stanley Martin, with the request that he preserve it for future generations.

I, Edward Shepard, leave my figure..." so round, so firm, so fully packed"...to Grady "Juicy" Furney.

I, William Simmons, leave to Joan Gardner, my happy-go-lucky disposition and ever-ready laugh.

I, Wilburn Sloan, leave my ability and Willingness to type to Gene Hobbs.

I, Marjorie Smith, leave my sunny outlook on life to Shirley Duncan.

I, M. K. Weaver, leave my "words of advice" to those who will take Family Living in the future!

I, Olan Wilson, leave my seat on the Patten bus to Janell Smith.

And now we bid a fond farewell.

Prophecy

"THROUGH THE SPYGLASS"

My car rounded the curve and came to a halt in front of the Pavo Institute of Atomic Engineering. Marveling at the changes which had been made in my old home town in ten years, I stepped out and gazed at very unfamiliar scenes. Was everything changed? Had I been away so long? Quickly, I hurried up the walkway to the office, to inquire about the meeting place. I was amazed to find Laverne Crosby at the Secretary's desk. She smiled and told me that she would soon join the other members of our class in the auditorium.

I was ushered down the aisle to the section marked, "Class of "52", by two distinguished high school Seniors, Andy Wasden and Linda Faye Baldwin. I hardly recognized them! I glanced around at the familiar and now famous people who were already in place. Near the front was Pavo's Television Station President, Betty June Duncan Gardner and her meek little husband, Aldine. Between them sat their seven children.

Next to the Gardner, sat Mary Fallin Brinson, overseer for National Sears, Roebuck and Company, and her husband. (I remembered what fun Mary and I used to have with a new Sears Catalog!)

Someone handed me a program for the day's entertainment. I glanced down at it and read, "at ten o'clock a lecture will be given by Miss Mary Clifton, and her famous project, the "Vapo"-Rocker to the Moon. Following her talk, Mr. Carrol Fort and Mr. Paul Sherrod will present a blackface duet. Mr. Fort and Mr. Sherrod are the famous stars who appear in T.V. Station WPAVO's program "Llorrac and Luap". Musical interludes will be in charge of Helen Nolen, her piano, and her "Nolecats", Edward Shepard, Hilton Cooper, Oleta Barrow, Peggy Kennedy, and Olan Wilson. Today's reunion and program was arranged by Mrs. Walter Scott and the Senior Class of 1962. The Seniors take pleasure in presenting this program of entertainment. Here I paused and looked up. The auditorium was almost filled with alumni of Pavo School. To my left sat Mary Frances Darby, writer and director of an internationally famous motion picture, IGNORANCE ABROAD. With her was the cast, Helen Mathews, Bo Pate and William Simmons, and sound-effects man, Johnny L. Daniels.

Farther down, sat Elizabeth Kennedy, coach of the Institute's "Electrons", Shirley McMillan, discoverer of ranadium pennicilli, a cancer cure, and Joanne Bryant, love-lorn columnist, who writes under the name, Dirothy Dox, chatting excitedly.

Slipping into seats on the row ahead of me were, M. K. Weaver, owner of the world's largest circus and Wilburn Sloan, explorer and scientist writer for National Science Magazine.

Next to me sat Marjorie Smith, President of "Lucy's Lucious Lipstick" Manufacturing Company, and Billy Gear, recently appointed United States authority on Atomic Energy. This appointment was made by United States President, H. F. Groover, Jr. Mr. Gear will work with Miss Mary Taylor (Yes, still Miss!!), winner of the 1961 Nobel Prize for her novel, "How I Discovered The Last Six Elements".

The Institute's President, Mr. Thaxton I. Shelley gave a welcome address and Mr. W. E. Gear spoke for a few minutes. I learned from Lavern, who had slipped into the seat to my right that Mr. and Mrs. Gear had retired and were living in a penthouse apartment on Pavo's famous Harris Street. Lavern also reported that Mrs. Pat Alderman owned a large country estate 150 miles from the city and that Mrs. Ellis had become director of the Institute's Concert Orchestra.

After the program was over, I spoke to everyone and hurried to write my news story for the Associated Press.
